The property with mallorquin mill and vacation license ETV was built around an old mill and has preserved its traditional spirit without giving up modern comforts.

Thanks to its exceptional location, you can enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Tramuntana mountains without leaving the village, as we are located on the outskirts.

This charming Mallorcan property has a total of 5 bedrooms of different sizes, sharing two bathrooms. The large living-dining room exudes Mallorcan character and even the original fireplace is still working. The fitted kitchen is of a pleasant size and original elements of the old mill have been preserved throughout the house. Outside there is a large partly covered terrace, a kidney-shaped pool and views of the Mallorcan countryside and the Tramuntana mountains.

The house has everything you need: air conditioning (hot/cold) in all rooms, central heating, satellite radio, telephone and internet connection. The house is perfectly communicated as you can reach the freeway that crosses the island without having to go through the village. From here you can easily reach the beaches of the north coast such as Formentor, Cala San Vicens, Playa de Alcudia and Playa de Muro, as well as many other places of interest. Campanet - a charming Majorcan village with a great atmosphere offers everything you need: authentic bars, restaurants, weekly markets, stores and supermarkets. Nearby you will find Ses Font Ufanés, a beautiful recreational area with wooded areas."
