This beautiful terraced house is located in the picturesque Los Damunts area, nestled in the charming village of Alaró on Mallorca. With a living area of 120 square metres, it offers enough space for comfortable living and cosy hours. The property impresses with its location, which offers a wonderful view of the surrounding mountains - ideal for nature lovers and those seeking peace and quiet.

The house has two balconies, the perfect places to enjoy the breathtaking scenery, start the day in a relaxed manner or end the evening with a glass of wine. These spacious outdoor areas invite you to enjoy the Mediterranean sunshine to the full. One of the many amenities of the house is the air conditioning, which ensures a pleasant coolness in the hot summer months. The indoor climate can be regulated individually and according to your own needs, which contributes to a high level of living comfort.

In addition to the living areas, the house offers a spacious garage with an area of 35 square metres. This not only offers space for a vehicle, but also for additional storage space.

All in all, this terraced house in Alaró combines the advantages of a central location with modern amenities and picturesque views - a perfect retreat in the heart of Mallorca.
